 Sgt. ██████

On 12/06/01, OCVAN received intelligence from the WPBPD concerning Maxwell. According to the report, Maxwell is hiring young women from PBAC to come to her house and answer the phone. They are paid $200.00 per day for this service. It is unclear what is occurring in the residence, however, contact information for PBAC students was provided. Follow-up will be initiated as soon as possible.

On 12/10/01, information was passed on from Sgt. ██████ regarding Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein of 358 El Brillo Way. A West Palm Beach intelligence report read as follows: "Three female college students from PBAC (████████, ██████████ and ██████████) were approached by an English woman who identified herself as Maxwell, on the Palm Beach Atlantic Campus. Maxwell said she needed young, beautiful unmarried women to answer phones and do office work at her home on Palm Beach. ██████████ went to the house on several occasions and described the telephone calls as men call in saying when they were going to drop off particular girls. All three girls said Maxwell and Epstein were secretive about Epstein touching them inappropriately. They said Maxwell asked for a list of other girls who she could call to work on short notice. She said she needed a large pool of girls to call as she did not know how many she would need at any given time. The callers were receptive to the idea of forwarding numbers of undercover personnel to Maxwell. Maxwell pays $200.00 per day for answering phones (cash). ██████████ said she only worked there one day, but she had been there on at least one other occasion. I did not speak with ██████████. Their telephone number is ██████████ at their dorm room on campus (roommates). Maxwell and Epstein allegedly have a private plane and frequently go to New York leaving them out of the area for extended periods of time."

Narrative/Notes

Numerous attempts were made to reach the girls at the above listed number with negative results. Finally, I contacted PBA security who stated the college was closed for the semester and would not re open until next year.

In the beginning of January, many messages were left which met with negative results.

A check of Jeffrey E Epstein, DOB 01/20/53, revealed an expired florida drivers license of E-123-425-53-020-0. Epstein did not return with any criminal history. An Accurint check revealed he has a florida concealed weapon permit #9012027, which expires on 03/29/05. Several ownership address were listed for Epstein including 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach, 457 Madison Ave, New York, NY, and numerous vehicle and watercraft ownerships. In addition, many UCC filings were recorded. Finally, associations were listed with the following companies: Ghislaine Corp (Inactive); Har Adom, Limited (CO-Active); L.A.W. Plantation Management (GA-Active); Nine East 71st street Corp. (NY-Active); RHC Licensing Corp (TX-Dead); and the other two Florida inactive corporations.

A check of Ghislaine Noelle Maxwell, DOB [REDACTED], revealed a valid florida driver license #M [REDACTED] with no criminal history. An Accurint check on Maxwell revealed numerous vehicles, with nothing additional.

On 1/28/02, trash pulls were initiated on this case, and conducted intermittently through 4/16/02. Numerous intelligence items were discovered within the trash, to include: individual directory listings for massages in New York, and the United Kingdom, numerous phone messages, daily calendars, list of female names titled "People that I want you to meet", listing females, ages, descriptions, and what they do (trash pull on 3/29/02), front page of bell south phone bill indicating phone account [REDACTED] under the name of Jeffrey Epstein and account [REDACTED] under the name of Ghislaine Maxwell, correspondence to indicate a weapon is kept on the property, financial information, nude photographs of women and numerous references to massages through daily calendars, phone messages, etc. It should be noted a list was compiled of all names associated with Epstein/Maxwell/358 El Brillo Way, and is documented in the file.

It should be noted that all attempts to reach reporting parties have met with negative results at this time.

On 02/8/02, an investigative subpoena was completed requesting all incoming and outgoing lines to the address 358 El Brillo Way.

On 02/13/02, the above referenced subpoena was received from the SAO and was served on Bell South via fax.

On 02/12/02, an inquiry into corporations on line revealed Jeffrey E. Epstein related to three Florida entities: Financial Strategy Group, Inc; Ghislaine Corp; Financial Trustees, Inc. None of the aforementioned entities are active.

On 02/22/02, I received information from Bell South which revealed the following telephone lines are installed at 358 El Brillo Way:

[REDACTED] Under name G. Maxwell
[REDACTED] Jeffrey Epstein Main house line

with visual pornography on it.

Another piece of paper that was seen indicated that information had been obtained about some type of adult work that paid $2,200.00 weekly.

Nothing else found. [REDACTED] is handling all discipline."

Security explained to me that [REDACTED] will no longer be allowed to reside at the PBAC campus, however, he will contact me with whatever address she moves to.

Later, I was contacted with the following address for [REDACTED]: [REDACTED] FL. A cell phone number of [REDACTED] was provided for McCoy.

On 04/24/02, Sgt. [REDACTED] and I interviewed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Both subjects confirmed they had been approached by Maxwell and had worked at the residence briefly answering phones, and were paid well. Although they felt there was something "weird" about the subjects residing there, [REDACTED] advised they did not observe anything illegal at the time.

On 04/25/02, Sgt. [REDACTED] and I met with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that she did not recall anything illegal occurring at the residence, there were nude photographs of women all over the residence. [REDACTED] added there were women running around the pool area topless, and that people were always getting massages. [REDACTED] stated that Epstein offered a massage to [REDACTED] at one time, (he did not physically do the massage-a tech did it), but Epstein had her take her top off for the massage. [REDACTED] stated that made her extremely uncomfortable and she has not been back since.

Although it appears as though usual activity is occurring at this residence, at this time, no illegal activity has been reported or detected. This information will remain as intelligence purposes only, until a crime is reported or possibly another student or young female and report to us while working at the residence.

There were a total of 2 bags inside, one black bag with a yellow draw string and a white in color bag with a yellow draw string. No items of evidentiary value were collected from the black bag. Inside the white bag, I found a Jeffrey E. Epstein white piece of note pad paper with a telephone number ([REDACTED]). This telephone number was held for evidentiary value, and turned over to Det. [REDACTED] for follow-up.

A photo copy was attached with the supplement.

On June 30, 2008, Epstein pled guilty to the charges of Solicitation of Prostitution and procurement of a minor for prostitution. He was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment and must register as a sex offender. The Palm Beach Daily news as well as other sources of media rant the story. The Daily news article read as follows:

Palm Beach billionaire Jeffrey Epstein pleaded guilty Monday morning in Palm Beach Circuit Court to felony charges that he solicited underage girls for prostitution.

Judge Deborah Dale Pucillo sentenced Epstein, 55, to 18 months at the Palm Beach County Jail, followed by 12 months of house arrest, during which he will be confined to his home on El Brillo Way and permitted to leave only for work or community service.

Epstein was taken directly into custody.

He was sentenced to 12 months in jail for solicitation of a prostitute and six months for procuring a person under age 18 for prostitution.

That will be followed by 12 months of house arrest, during which time he will be allowed no unsupervised contact with minors and no access to pornographic materials. The State Attorney's Office would not say how many victims there were in the case, but the incidents occurred in 2004 and 2005.

In court Monday, Epstein wore a blue blazer, tennis shoes and blue jeans and was accompanied by at least two attorneys, West Palm Beach lawyer Jack A. Goldberger and Miami attorney Guy Lewis.

Epstein responded politely when asked by the judge if he had read and fully understood the terms of his plea agreement.

As a condition of the agreement, Epstein will be registered as a sex offender for the rest of his life. But he will not be required to undergo treatment for his condition. His lawyer said Epstein has been seeing a psychiatrist.

After he leaves jail, Epstein will not be required to wear an electronic monitor, but will have to keep a daily log of his activities and maintain weekly contact with a probation officer. He will be allowed to leave his home for up to a half-hour while traveling to and from work or community service.

Goldberger would not comment on the case. But Epstein's spokesman, Howard J. Rubenstein, said in a statement that Epstein has now resolved the criminal case.

"Mr. Epstein accepted responsibility for the charges, relating to conduct that occurred several years ago," Rubenstein said.

A Manhattan investment banker, Epstein was scheduled to go to trial in July after being indicted in July 2006 on a felony charge of soliciting prostitution.

The indictment followed an 11-month investigation by Palm Beach Police. Police said Epstein paid five underage girls for massages and sometimes sex at his El Brillo Way home.

Epstein also faces five lawsuits in federal and state courts from women who claim that he sexually assaulted them when they were younger than 18. The lawsuits claim Epstein procured the underage girls, through a Palm Beach Community College student, to come to his El Brillo Way home and give him massages.

Lewis, who is representing him in the civil cases, has said the lawsuits are without merit and that the alleged victims lied about their ages.

Epstein was cuffed, fingerprinted and taken to jail. He will fulfill a 12-month community service requirement at his own nonprofit Florida science foundation.

On Saturday July 12, 2008, an article ran in the Sun Sentinel newspaper local section. The article stated the following:

Two underage girls who claim to have been sexually abused by Palm Beach billionaire Jeffrey Epstein appeared in federal court Friday to argue that the government's plea agreement with the investment banker was too lenient and "they had no voice in the process."

"These girls want justice. They want this guy in prison," said attorney Brad Edwards, who represents them in federal civil suits filed against Epstein in February. There are about five suits each asking for $50 million pending in federal court against him.

On June 30, according to a plea agreement struck with the government, Epstein pleaded guilty to procuring a person under 18 for prostitution and felony offer to commit prostitution. The counts stemmed from his involvement with one underage girl.

He faced a maximum of 15 years and was given 18 months. In court Friday, Edwards told U.S. District Judge Kenneth Marra the plea agreement "was worked out behind the victims' backs." Edwards said that part of the confidential agreement was that the federal government would not prosecute Epstein for abusing more victims if he pleaded guilty to abusing one in state court.

"The agreement was that he could plead guilty to abusing one girl in state court so that he wouldn't be prosecuted in federal court for the 100 other girls he molested," Edwards told Marra.

The two girls, identified in court papers as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], did not testify on Friday.

Epstein's attorneys were not present at the hearing which involved federal prosecutors. Edwards invoked a federal crime victims law to raise the issue in federal court, where he wanted Marra to kill the plea agreement. Under the law, victims have a right to confer and Edwards said they were not consulted about the agreement. Assistant U.S. Attorney [REDACTED] argued that the federal court did not have jurisdiction and Marra agreed. Epstein's attorney, Jack Goldberger, could not be reached for comment.

Edwards said that one of his underage clients started visiting Epstein at his sprawling mansion on El Brillo Way when she was 13 to give him massages for $200. Police reports have said that the girls would be escorted to a bedroom with a massage table and that Epstein would enter wearing only a towel and instruct the girls to remove their clothing and massage him. These sessions escalated into touching and other activities, sometimes with sex toys. Edwards said that when his client turned 14, Epstein told her that she could make $200 for every girl she recruited for the massage sessions. She claimed she recruited 50.

In court, Edwards told Marra: "Mr. Epstein is a billionaire who has sexually abused dozens and dozens of 13- to 17-year-old girls. And because of his deviant appetites and his vast wealth, he might just be the most dangerous sexual predator in the world."

Based on the above article, on July 15, 2008, I contacted Atty. Brad Edwards. Atty. Edwards explained he was going to contact me reference his clients. His clients have claimed that they are victims of sexual abuse. They allege that Jeffrey Epstein had sexually abused them and approximately fifty (50) others underage girls. Edwards explained he would reach out to the clients and schedule appointments for interviews. I provided Edwards with my telephone numbers and advised to call me when he is available. I informed him I would contact [REDACTED] to ascertain if the plea negotiations which occurred on June 30, 2008, covered only the listed victims in the State v. Jeffrey Epstein case. Edwards assured me that his clients were not previously interviewed by our agency during the previous investigation. I telephoned the State Attorney's Office and left messages for [REDACTED] to call me.

After leaving several messages for ASA [REDACTED], I made telephone contact with her on Friday, July 18, 2008. [REDACTED] was asked which victims were covered under the plea agreement. [REDACTED] stated all the victims I had presented her originally in the probable cause affidavit were covered in the plea agreement. I received a telephone call from Atty Edwards who advised he had spoken with his clients and they are willing to meet with me at the Palm Beach Police Department. Edwards stated he would be going on his annual leave and return during Aug 4, 2008. I informed Atty Edwards I would advise him when I would meet with his clients after August 12, 2008. It should be noted the meeting did not occur due to the fact Edward's clients were already covered the on the original agreement.

On July 22, 2009, several news agencies reported the following:

Jeffrey Epstein left the Palm Beach County jail just before dawn Wednesday after serving less than 13 months of his 18-month sentence for procuring a young girl for prostitution and soliciting prostitution.

"Jeffrey is just happy this is over," his attorney Jack Goldberger told reporters gathered at the jail's front door -- an exit Epstein avoided, using a side door instead to leave without comment. While this closes the chapter for now on his criminal troubles, Epstein still faces many legal battles.

A dozen lawsuits have been filed against the money manager on behalf of underage girls who claim to be his victims. "There was never any victims. There are women who have filed lawsuits against Mr. Epstein and we will challenge them," Goldberger said.

For now, Epstein is headed to his Palm Beach home, Goldberger said. He described Epstein as feeling "relief and excitement." "He just wanted to go home and rest right now, and that's what he did," Goldberger said. The 56-year-old has 48 hours to register as a sex offender.

He'll be on probation for the next year and will have to contact his probation officer weekly. Epstein is also required to donate a sample of his DNA for the state's database. While Epstein has been serving time since he pleaded guilty to two felony charges last June, this won't be his first time he steps out of confinement. He's been heading to work every weekday and some weekends since last October as part of a work-release program.

According to jail records, Epstein, wearing an ankle bracelet, was free from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. weekdays and even weekends to work at the Florida Science Foundation, a nonprofit he created before he was sentenced.

The lawsuits filed on behalf of several alleged victims all describe the man's pursuit of erotic massages and sex from young girls similarly: A minor girl (some reported to be as young as 15) is brought to Epstein's mansion on El Brillo Way and taken to the spa room upstairs by one of his assistants. Then he'd ask the girl to give him massages and/or perform sex acts for which he would pay her.

After Epstein's release from Palm Beach County Jail, I was informed that Epstein was to be confined to his house on El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. I confirmed with Epstein's probation officer, [REDACTED], what he is allowed to do while out on community control for one year. [REDACTED] stated he is to submit a schedule for any appointments he must have. This also includes any work related issues. On August 19, 2009, while driving in the area of Hammon and the Ocean, I observed Jeffrey Epstein walking northbound along the ocean. I maintained visual contact with Epstein and was able to photograph Epstein walking with his bodyguard/trainer Igor.

During the time from when Epstein was incarcerated, his release and recent, any media files have been placed in the OCVAN files under Jeffrey Epstein.

[REDACTED]

On October 9, 2009, I was notified by ASA [REDACTED] about Jeffrey Epstein possibly violated the non-prosecution agreement. Epstein, accompanied by his body guard/trainer, [REDACTED], showed up to a deposition on one of the victims. The deposition was to be held at the attorney for the victim ([REDACTED]) office. Epstein was to be phoned to participate in the deposition. Epstein walked into the lobby and stood directly in front of the victim [REDACTED]. Epstein stared at her and whispered something to the bodyguard while smirking and pointing at the victim. The victim burst into tears and left the deposition.

As Epstein was not allowed to any contact with the victim, ASA [REDACTED] is seeking prosecution on Epstein for violating the no contact order. I recommended she contact the AUSA [REDACTED] for assistance on the no contact prosecution. As the incident did not occur within the Town of Palm Beach, This is for the file only.

See below where I Ref Clinton the " Guest Of Honour" at times at Epstein's parties that were awash with underage girls.

I am aware that people find integrity a tad problematic within your Parasitic Nation.

However what I am not aware of was there a codicil to that pissant piece of paper that was penned by a bunch of semi literate colonials the US Constitution.

Did that codicil state that crackers such as Clinton can rape women without risk of prosecution.

Did it say crackers like Clinton can engage in sexual acts with girls in their early teens.

Punch will be spinning in his grave at how vacuous and vile the US media has become as would Kay Graham.

The so called Holy Grail of Journalism a Pulitzer who would want one.

I would rather that buffoon in Albany dining out on his Daddies name would give me a " Get Out Of Jail" card in advance.

One that would allow me to punch Pinch out the vile spawn of Punch's loins does not only have my blood upon his hands but the blood of children in 3rd world countries that my late daughters charity would have aided.
